BIOGRAPHICAL

McPhearson, John T., whose finely improved landed estate is located ten miles northeast of Waynesboro, Wayne county, on rural free mail delivery route No. 2, is one of the representative farmers and business men of this section of the State and also has the distinction of being a veteran of the Civil war, in which he rendered loyal service to the Confederacy. He was born in Tuscaloosa, Ala., Aug. 8, 1842, being a son of Lorenz D. and Rebecca (Savage) McPhearson, the former of whom was born in South Carolina and the latter in Tuscaloosa, Ala. From Alabama the father came to Mississippi and located in Monroe county, whence he removed to Wayne county in 1856, here passing the remainder of his long and useful life, which was devoted to agricultural pursuits. He was a stanch Democrat and was a man of sterling character, commanding the respect of all who knew him. He died in 1882, at a venerable age, and his wife passed away in 1884, both having been consistent members of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. Of their children four are living. John T. McPhearson was a child of about six years at the time of his parents' removal to Mississippi, and here he was reared to manhood, completing the curriculum of the common schools and then continuing his studies in Rose Hill academy, in Jasper county. At the outbreak of the Civil war, shortly after his nineteenth birthday, Mr. McPhearson tendered his services in defense of the Confederate cause, enlisting as a private in Company C, Thirtieth Mississippi infantry, which was mustered in at Columbus, Lowndes county. The regiment was first under fire in the battle of Iuka, and also took part in the engagements at Abbeville and Corinth, while winter quarters were maintained at Snyder's Bluff. In April, 1862, the regiment was a part of the forces which routed the Federal troops at Fort Pinkerton, and it then went to Vicksburg, where it was stationed during the memorable siege. After the fall of Vicksburg the regiment was in parole camp at Enterprise for a few months, and when an exchange was effected the command was ordered to Mobile, Ala., and thence into Florida, having several engagements with the enemy and proceeding as far as Shoal river. About thirty days later the regiment was ordered to Rome, Ga., from which point it proceeded on the march to Resaca, taking part in the battle there and in the campaign which followed, leading up to the battle of Atlanta and that at Jonesboro, from which latter point the command returned to Dalton and thence proceeded into Tennessee, taking part in the battles of Franklin and Nashville and other engagements of minor importance. The regiment then went on to North Carolina, but Mr. McPhearson, being incapacitated on account of illness, was sent home on furlough, and after the close of the war he received his final parole, at Meridian. He soon took up the practical duties of business, securing a position as salesman in a mercantile establishment in Isney, Ala., and being thus engaged until 1868, when he turned his attention to farming, with which basic industry he has ever since been identified, while in the connection with his well directed and successful operations in this line he also conducts a well equipped general store and operates a grist and saw mill and also a cotton gin, giving his personal supervision to his varied interests and being recognized as one of the county's most progressive business men. Mr. McPhearson is a stalwart Democrat in his political adherence, and in a fraternal way he is a popular member of Sam. Powe Camp, No. 1144, United Confederate Veterans, taking a deep interest in his old comrades in arms and both he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal church at Big Rock, Wayne county, of whose board of stewards he is a valued member. On Jan. 7, 1868, Mr. McPhearson wedded Miss Isabella Pittman, daughter of John W. Pittman, of Wayne county, and they have three children: Eliza, who is the wife of Dr. A. O. Lomox, of Langsdale, Clarke county; and Mary and John L., who remain at the parental home.

McRae, Murdoch L., who was one of the substantial planters of Wayne county during his residence in that county, of which he was sheriff, is a veteran of the Civil war and is one of the highly esteemed citizens of his section, while he is also a representative of one of the pioneer families of the State. He was born in Wayne county, Miss., Sept. 15, 1840, and is a son of Farquard and Rachel McRae, the former of whom was born in North Carolina in 1799, and the latter in South Carolina in 1805. Farquard McRae came to Mississippi in an early day and took up his residence in Wayne county, where he became a successful farmer and stock-grower and where he continued to reside until his death, which occurred in 1851. He was county treasurer at the time of his demise and was a man who stood high in the esteem of all who knew him, while he wielded much influence in local affairs of a public nature. His wife died in 1898 and of their children five are living. Ex-Governor McRae, of Mississippi, is of a collateral branch of the same family. Murdoch L. McRae was educated in the common schools of Wayne county and early began to familiarize himself with the details involved in the work and management of the homestead farm. In 1862, at the age of twenty-two years, Mr. McRae went forth in defense of the cause of the Confederacy, having been unable to enlist at the outbreak of the war by reason of the fact that he found it incumbent to remain at home and care for his widowed mother and other members of the family. He enlisted as a private in the Wayne Rifles, the first that went out from Wayne county, and the same was mustered in as Company B, Thirteenth Mississippi infantry. He was a participant in the battle of Chancellorsville and then took part in the campaign which led up to and included the battle of Gettysburg. The command then returned to Virginia and was thence sent to Chattanooga, Tenn., taking part in the battle of Chickamauga, and then being stationed in the investment of Chattanooga for one month,

I firmly believe these are our family ancestors. I'm hoping someone from the Miss area will have a Bible or other source of information to confirm this. I have researched SC pretty thoroughly and there were only 15 head of households with this name on the 1790 Census. This is the only family whose names, dates & other connecting families fit our line.

Lawrens Co SC.

Wm McPherson bought 100 acres on Reedy River in 1795. I do not know if he was the original immigrant or child of the original. I have been unable to get back further at this time. He had three sons. a Wm, James & I believe Burgess who died in 1825. The settlement of his estate shows no family so he may never have married.

The census shows his son Wm to be the one who had a son to fit the age of our Lorenzo Dow, who is a proven connection. Wm also disappears from the SC census after 1830 but find him with Lorenzo Dow in Tuscaloosa Ala in 1840. Wm was married to a Sarah Shirley & there are many Shireleys in Tuscaloosa in 1840. Looks like a group may have moved down together.

In 1850 Lorenzo Dow is in Lawrence Co Miss along with an Aaron who is probably a brother. Close by in Monroe Co is another brother, James, and living with him is Wm, now 70 years old. He (Wm) disappears from the Census after this date.

Lorenzo Dow is missing from the 1860 Census but records show he bought land in Wayne Co in this year. He lived here until his death in 1876, along with a son John Tillman who also died there.

Dear Jean PASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION
My name is Shirley McPhearson and I have been doing research on McPhearsons and Sheeleys in Miss. I have been in contact with Joyce Sheeley Hyatt from Quitman, Ms. who has given me your name & address.
She informs me you are doing a family history file of people from Wayne Co. You had sent her information on the Sheeleys and she said you may already have a file on the McPhearsons.

My Great Grandfather, Julius Comley from Mo., and my husbands Great Grandfather James Sterling McPhearson had fought against each other at Vicksburg. We wanted to visit the battlefield & then go onto Quitman & visit with Joyce Hyatt. We were able to do that this past fall. We left here on a Friday night, spent the night and made Vicksburg the next morning. We were lucky to get Pat Tucker as our guide to the battlefields. She told us about the work you are doing on Wayne Co genealogy and sent us some information about the McPhearsons from your books: Confederate Records of Wayne Co, Who Lived Where in Wayne Co,
and Whom Married Whom in Wayne Co.

We drove to Meridian, Ms Sat. and spent the night
there, meeting Joyce Hyatt the following morning - Sunday.
Twenty minutes after leaving the motel, at our first cemetery stop, I realized I was so excited about meeting Joyce, I had walked out & left my purse in the motel room. We were back to the motel in less than an hour but the room had already been cleaned & my purse was gone. We spent most of the morning dealing with the police, who were not the least bit helpful, and trying to cancel credit cards. We made some cemeteries that afternoon and even made it to Waepnebore before our time ran out.

We located the 2 daughters and a son of our great Uncle, John Tillman McPhearson, in the 2nd cemetery there. As it was Sunday we were unable to find anyone who could give us any further information.

We returned to Meridian & visited with Joyce's family. We then drove all night to get home so we could cancel the rest of the credit cards on Monday morning. I had also lost all of my medication I had to have.

We had planned on spending a week doing research in that area & at Jacksons. As we were unable to spend the time to research ourselves we were delighted with the information Pat Tucker sent us. She also gave us a wonderful tour of Vicksburg.

I am sending some family sheets and some other misc information which I hope will help start a McPearson file. I have some Civil War records if they would be of any use to you. I would appreciate any information you might have concerning our family in Wayne Co. I am hoping to find someone who can prove the link between Lorenzo & the Wm I think is his dad.

Yours truly,

Shirley McPearson

Sarah McPherson

After losing everything she owned to Hurricane Katrina, Sarah McPherson, 61, of Pascagoula, had to come out of retirement. She once worked for Chevron's central records department and now is a clerk at the Pascagoula branch of the Jackson-George Regional Library System. McPherson said her records experience helps her with her new vocation, and her love of people makes the job even better. "Books are records," McPherson said. "I'm a real people person and you see some of everybody at the library." Her mother and six siblings have kept McPherson in Pascagoula for more than 40 years, she said. McPherson enjoys cross-stitching and reading when she's not working to rebuild her home.
